Stewardship Message—Empowered! “Fully Alive as Missionary Disciples” Pentecost

Acts 2:1-11 1 Cor 12:3B-7, 12-13 Jn 20:19-23

In Genesis 2:7, the breath of God breathed life into Adam... in Ezekiel 37:9, the breath of God brought life to a valley of dry, dead bones... in 1 Kings 19:12, Elijah found God in a gentle breeze. It isn't unusual for God to use the movement of air to reveal His presence. However, there is a difference between a breath of air and the "strong, driving wind" with which the Holy Spirit moved into the upper room where the disciples were gathered for Pentecost! This was not a gentle revelation! This is the same Holy Spirit which moves in the heart of you — the missionary disciple — as you go about your work. In John's gospel, Jesus says, "Receive the Holy Spirit." In stewardship, we receive the Holy Spirit in gratitude, and that includes the gifts that are bestowed on us by Him. Can you imagine if we stopped holding back, and just unleashed the power of those gifts in our discipleship? Allow that driving force to propel you into the world. Come, Holy Spirit!

DOCTRINAL SECTION

When the Son completed the work with which the Father had entrusted him on earth, the Holy Spirit was sent on the day of Pentecost to sanctify the Church unceasingly, and thus enable believers to have access to the Father through Christ in the one Spirit. He is the Spirit of life, the fountain of water welling up to give eternal life. Through him the Father gives life to men, dead because of sin, until he raises up their mortal bodies in Christ.

The Spirit dwells in the Church and in the hearts of the faithful as in a temple. He prays in them and bears witness in them to their adoption as sons. He leads the Church into all truth and gives it unity in communion and in service. He endows it with different hierarchical and charismatic gifts, directs it by their means, and enriches it with his fruits. By the power of the Gospel he enables the Church to grow young, perpetually renews it, and leads it to complete union with its Bridegroom. For the Spirit and the Bride say to the Lord Jesus: "Come!"

In this way the Church reveals itself as a people whose unity has its source in the unity of Father, Son and Holy Spirit. The whole company of the faithful, who have an anointing by the Holy Spirit, cannot err in faith. They manifest this distinctive characteristic of theirs in the supernatural instinct of faith (sensus fidei) of the whole people when, from the bishops to the most ordinary lay person among the faithful, they display a universal agreement on matters of faith and morals. This instinct of faith is awakened and kept in being by the Spirit of truth. Through it the people of God hold indefectibly to the faith once delivered to the saints, penetrate it more deeply by means of right judgment, and apply it more perfectly in their lives. They do all this under the guidance of the sacred teaching office: by faithful obedience to it they receive, not the word of men but in truth the word of God. Moreover, the Holy Spirit not only sanctifies and guides God's people by the sacraments and the ministries, and enriches it with virtues, he also distributes special graces among the faithful of every state of life, assigning his gifts to each as he chooses. By means of these special gifts he equips them and makes them eager for various activities and responsibilities that benefit the Church in its renewal or its increase, in accordance with the text: To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for a good purpose.~Vatican II
