Stewardship Message—Empowered! “Fully Alive as Missionary Disciples” 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

2 Kgs 4:8-11, 14-16a Rom 6:3-4, 8-11 Mt 10:37-42

As baptized Christians, we understand that we have been made disciples of Jesus Christ. We also understand, then, that we have been baptized into the life of Jesus, and that he has become the essential element of our being. But today, in his letter to the Romans, St. Paul reminds us that we are also baptized into the death of Jesus Christ, and this gives us something to ponder. Jesus (and with Him, our sins) was crucified, died, and was buried. Then he rose from the grave. Paul tells us that we must consider ourselves “dead to sin and living for God in Christ Jesus.” Let these words drive your discipleship this week. “in newness of life.”

DOCTRINAL SECTION

You shall draw waters with joy out of the Savior's fountain." These words by which the prophet Isaias, using highly significant imagery, foretold the manifold and abundant gifts of God which the Christian era was to bring forth, come naturally to Our mind when We reflect on the centenary of that year when Our predecessor of immortal memory, Pius IX, gladly yielding to the prayers from the whole Catholic world, ordered the celebration of the feast of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus in the Universal Church. It is altogether impossible to enumerate the heavenly gifts which devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus has poured out on the souls of the faithful, purifying them, offering them heavenly strength, rousing them to the attainment of all virtues. Therefore, recalling those wise words of the Apostle St. James, "Every best gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of Lights," We are perfectly justified in seeing in this same devotion, which flourishes with increasing fervor throughout the world, a gift without price which our divine Savior the Incarnate Word, as the one Mediator of grace and truth between the heavenly Father and the human race imparted to the Church, His mystical Spouse, in recent centuries when she had to endure such trials and surmount so many difficulties. The Church, rejoicing in this inestimable gift, can show forth a more ardent love of her divine Founder, and can, in a more generous and effective manner, respond to that invitation which St. John the Evangelist relates as having come from Christ Himself: "And on the last and great day of the festivity, Jesus stood and cried out, saying, 'If any man thirst, let him come to Me, and let him drink that believeth in Me. As the Scripture saith: Out of his heart there shall flow rivers of living waters.' Now this He said of the Spirit which they should receive who believed in Him."

~ Pope Pius XII
