Stewardship Message—Empowered! “Fully Alive as Missionary Disciples” Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Is 55:10-11 Rom 8:18-23 Mt 13:1-23

St. Paul is one of the greatest missionary disciples of all time. It is encouraging to know that life was no less complicated for him than it is for us in 2020. In his letter to the Romans Paul says, “I consider that the sufferings of this present time are as nothing compared with the glory to be revealed for us.” He gives people such hope! Sometimes it feels like we are being bombarded with negativity, chaos, and hatred. We are desperately searching for the voices of hope. Stop searching — YOU are the voice of hope! Like Paul, you are empowered by the Holy Spirit to bring God’s peace to your neighbors. You might do that through a kind smile, a friendly conversation, or an inspiring message on social media. Strive to rise above the angst around you! Paul says, “we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, we also groan within ourselves as we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies.” He acknowledges that discipleship is not an easy path, and he encourages us to keep our eyes on the future glory that has been promised by a faithful God!

DOCTRINAL SECTION

The doctrine of the Mystical Body of Christ, which is the Church, was first taught us by the Redeemer Himself. Illustrating as it does the great and inestimable privilege of our intimate union with so exalted a Head, this doctrine by its sublime dignity invites all those who are drawn by the Holy Spirit to study it, and gives them, in the truths of which it proposes to the mind, a strong incentive to the performance of such good works as are conformable to its teaching. For this reason, We deem it fitting to speak to you on this subject through this ... For We intend to speak of the riches stored up in this Church which Christ purchased with His own Blood, and whose members glory in a thorn-crowned Head. The fact that they thus glory is a striking proof that the greatest joy and exaltation are born only of suffering, and hence that we should rejoice if we partake of the sufferings of Christ, that when His glory shall be revealed we may also be glad with exceeding joy. From the outset it should be noted that the society established by the Redeemer of the human race resembles its divine Founder, who was persecuted, calumniated and tortured by those very men whom He had undertaken to save. We do not deny, rather from a heart filled with gratitude to God We admit, that even in our turbulent times there are many who, though outside the fold of Jesus Christ, look to the Church as the only haven of salvation; but We are also aware that the Church of God not only is despised and hated maliciously by those who shut their eyes to the light of Christian wisdom and miserably return to the teachings, customs and practices of ancient paganism, but is ignored and neglected, and even at times looked upon as irksome by many Christians who are allured by specious error or caught in the meshes of the world's corruption. In obedience, therefore, Venerable Brethren, to the voice of Our conscience and in compliance with the wishes of many, We will set forth before the eyes of all and extol the beauty, the praises, and the glory of Mother Church to whom, after God, we owe everything. ~Pope Pius XII
