Stewardship Message—Empowered! “Fully Alive as Missionary Disciples” 22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Do not conform yourselves to this age but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and pleasing and perfect.” This verse is often used as a theme for youth conferences, encouraging young people to rise above the cultural fads and seek a life in Jesus. This is a wonderful message for the young people as they progress through the teenage years, but what about the rest of us? Does it still apply when we enter the workforce? When we get married and have children? When we reach middle age and our lives feel stagnant? When we retire and seek ways to fill our time? When we face the end of our days? Clearly, Paul’s message is relevant to us throughout our lives. At all times, we are bombarded with noise that might draw us away from Jesus. We are encouraged to think, speak, and act as everyone else does, but our discipleship calls us to a way of life that may “go against the grain.” Resist the temptation to conform for the sake of conformity and ask yourself if your current choices, regardless of your stage in life, are “good and pleasing and perfect.” We should ALWAYS be discerning the will of God in our lives.

DOCTRINAL SECTION

Our Redeemer also governs His Mystical Body in a visible and normal way through His Vicar on earth. You know, Venerable Brethren, that after He had ruled the "little flock" Himself during His mortal pilgrimage, Christ our Lord, when about to leave this world and return to the Father, entrusted to the Chief of the Apostles the visible government of the entire community He had founded. Since He was all wise He could not leave the body of the Church He had founded as a human society without a visible head. Nor against this may one argue that the primacy of jurisdiction established in the Church gives such a Mystical Body two heads. For Peter in view of his primacy is only Christ's Vicar; so that there is only one chief Head of this Body, namely Christ, who never ceases Himself to guide the Church invisibly, though at the same time He rules it visibly, through him who is His representative on earth. After His glorious Ascension into Heaven this Church rested not on Him alone, but on Peter, too, its visible foundation stone. That Christ and His Vicar constitute one only Head is the solemn teaching of Our predecessor of immortal memory Boniface VIII in the Apostolic Letter Unam Sanctam; and his successors have never ceased to repeat the same. They, therefore, walk in the path of dangerous error who believe that they can accept Christ as the Head of the Church, while not adhering loyally to His Vicar on earth. They have taken away the visible head, broken the visible bonds of unity and left the Mystical Body of the Redeemer so obscured and so maimed, that those who are seeking the haven of eternal salvation can neither see it nor find it. What we have thus far said of the Universal Church must be understood also of the individual Christian communities, whether Oriental or Latin, which go to make up the one Catholic Church. For they, too, are ruled by Jesus Christ through the voice of their respective Bishops. Consequently, Bishops must be considered as the more illustrious members of the Universal Church, for they are united by a very special bond to the divine Head of the whole Body and so are rightly called "principal parts of the members of the Lord;" moreover, as far as his own diocese is concerned, each one as a true Shepherd feeds the flock entrusted to him and rules it in the name of Christ. Yet in exercising this office they are not altogether independent, but are subordinate to the lawful authority of the Roman Pontiff, although enjoying the ordinary power of jurisdiction which they receive directly from the same Supreme Pontiff. Therefore, Bishops should be revered by the faithful as divinely appointed successors of the Apostles, and to them, even more than to the highest civil authorities should be applied the words: "Touch not my anointed one!" For Bishops have been anointed with the chrism of the Holy Spirit.

~Ven. Pius XII

ST. MARY SCHOOL

Hello school families and valued community members! There are many things that are changing in the world around us right now, but the staff at SMCS are already eagerly preparing for our students to return this fall. To assist with minimizing expenses related to sanitizing and community access, it will be important to be able to verify who has access to the school building at any given time. To assist with this I am kindly asking that anybody who is not currently a staff member, but has a key to the school building, to please drop off their key at the school office as soon as possible. Keys will then be checked out on an as needed basis.

There is still an opening for a pre-school/kindergarten aide at St. Mary's. If you are interested, and for more information, please call the school at 316-282-1974.

Thank you so much for your time and consideration on these matters! If you have any questions or concerns please let me know by calling me at (316)282-1974.

Joshua Bargdill, Principal
