Stewardship Message— Let us rejoice! Easter Sunday

Acts 10:34a, 37-43 / Col 3:1-4 / Jn 20:1-9

“This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.” Our discipleship should be cause for rejoicing and gladness, especially on this Easter Sunday! Look at Mary Magdalene, who showed up at the tomb “early in the morning, while it was still dark,” because she simply could not stay away any longer. May we all approach the Mass with such eagerness! Look at how she ran back to tell Peter and John about the empty tomb. May we all share the Good News with such enthusiasm! And look at how Peter and John “saw and believed” when they saw the burial cloths, completely undisturbed. May we all respond with such faith! On this most Holy Day, take time to reflect on your own discipleship and to express gratitude for the gift of the Word Incarnate!

DOCTRINAL SECTION
Easter Sunday

Alleluia: the cry that expresses paschal joy! The exclamation that rings out again in the middle of the night of waiting and brings with it already the joy of the morning. It brings with it the certainty of resurrection. That which, at the first moment, the lips of the women in front of the sepulchre or the mouths of the apostles did not have the courage to utter, now the Church, thanks to their testimony, expresses with her Alleluia. This song of joy, sung about midnight, announces to us the Great Day. In some Slav languages, Easter is called the "Great Night" after the Great Night there arrives the Great Day: "the day which the Lord has made". And now we are about to meet this Great Day with the paschal fire lit; we have lit the candle—Christ's light—from this fire and proclaimed beside it the glory of his Resurrection in the song of the Exsultet. Then we entered, by means of a series of readings, the process of the great announcement of creation, of the world, of man, of the People of God; we entered the preparation of the whole of creation for this Great Day, the day of the victory of good over evil, of Life over death. It is not possible to grasp the mystery of the Resurrection except by returning to the origins and following, thereafter, the whole development of the history of the economy of salvation up to that Moment! To the moment in which the three women of Jerusalem, stopping at the threshold of the empty sepulchre, heard the message of a young man dressed in a white robe "Do not be amazed; you seek Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has risen, he is not here" (Mk 16:5-6). That great Moment does not allow us to remain outside ourselves; it compels us to enter our own humanity. Christ not only revealed to us the victory of life over death, but brought us, with his Resurrection, the New Life. He gave us this new life. Here is how St Paul puts it: "Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life" (Rom 6: 3-4). ~St. John Paul II

St. Mary's School Auction

Several years ago, a group of forward-thinking St. Mary Catholic School parents had a vision. That vision was to enhance the educational experience for not only the students in school at that time, but for all future students to come. They felt, as we continue to feel today, that it is extremely important to give students a solid moral and educational foundation, especially in today's rapidly changing world. In the spring of 1997, in an attempt to achieve their dream, they worked together to create the first St. Mary Catholic School Benefit Auction.

This year the event will be on-line starting April 22 and concluding April 24, 2021. Web site information will be shared soon.

We will use the funds raised this year to add to the endowment for our school to benefit the ongoing operations of the school in years to come and to update the gym. We need your help through the annual raffle ticket sale. The tickets are $5 each (suggested donation). There are 10 prizes to the raffle this year.
