Stewardship Message—

The Sacrament of the Altar

Ex 24:3-8 / Heb 9:11-15 / Mk 14:12-16, 22-26

“In the sacrament of the altar, the Lord meets us, men and women created in God’s image and likeness, and becomes our companion along the way.” These words from Pope Benedict XVI should bring consolation to us as missionary disciples. Jesus goes with us — always! Today, as we honor the Body and Blood of our Lord in the Eucharist, we are reminded that this sacrament must reside at the very center of our lives. We cannot expect to go about doing the work of Christ if we have not first gone to Him at the altar. The Eucharist calls us into an intimate relationship with the Master, and this friendship should shape and drive our discipleship.

DOCTRINAL SECTION-TRINITY SUNDAY

On the feast of Corpus Domini, the Church relives the mystery of Holy Thursday in the light of the Resurrection. There is also a Eucharistic procession on Holy Thursday, when the Church repeats the exodus of Jesus from the Upper Room to the Mount of Olives. In Israel, the night of the Passover was celebrated in the home, within the intimacy of the family; this is how the first Passover in Egypt was commemorated, the night in which the blood of the paschal lamb, sprinkled on the crossbeam and doorposts of the houses, served as protection against the destroyer. On that night, Jesus goes out and hands himself over to the betrayer, the destroyer, and in so doing, overcomes the night, overcomes the darkness of evil. Only in this way is the gift of the Eucharist, instituted in the Upper Room, fulfilled: Jesus truly gives his Body and his Blood. Crossing over the threshold of death, he becomes living Bread, true manna, endless nourishment for eternity. The flesh becomes the Bread of Life. In the Holy Thursday procession, the Church accompanies Jesus to the Mount of Olives: it is the authentic desire of the Church in prayer to keep watch with Jesus, not to abandon him in the night of the world, on the night of betrayal, on the night of the indifference of many people. On the feast of Corpus Domini, we again go on this procession, but in the joy of the Resurrection. The Lord is risen and leads us. In the narrations of the Resurrection there is a common and essential feature; the angels say: the Lord "goes ahead of you to Galilee, where you will see him" (Mt 28: 7). Taking this into deep consideration, we can say that this "going ahead" of Jesus implies a two-way direction. Jesus goes before us next to the Father, rises to the heights of God and invites us to follow him. These two directions on the Risen One's journey are not contradictory, for both indicate the path to follow Christ.

~Pope Benedict XVI

St. Vincent de Paul Reflection Corpus Christi Sunday

"While they were eating, Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take it; this is my body." Then he took a cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and they all drank from it. "This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many" And 2000 years on, those same elements come together again, as His Disciples we share and celebrate each and every Eucharist. "Do this in memory of me." How does the Eucharist sustain my Christian life?
