Stewardship Message— Do the Math

Am 7:12-15 / Eph 1:3-14 / Mk 6:7-13

Jesus sent the Twelve two by two in an effort to evangelize others. It is a simple plan, if you think about it ... a matter of multiplication and exponents! If the Twelve do their job well, then they send others and soon 12 becomes 24 and then 48 and so on! This is still the best plan for evangelizing others! You, as a missionary disciple, have been summoned and equipped by Jesus, and you have been sent to evangelize others. You do so in your words and your actions. You do so at home, at work, at the ball fields, at Mass, and even in the car! Are you conducting yourself in a way that will cause others to want to join you in the mission? Are you seeking opportunities throughout the day to share the Gospel in some way? The math only works if YOU work!

DOCTRINAL SECTION

The Blessed Virgin Mary was predestined from eternity by that decree of divine providence which determined the incarnation of the Word to be the Mother of God, the Blessed Virgin was on this earth the virgin Mother of the Redeemer, and above all others and in a singular way the generous associate and humble handmaid of the Lord. She conceived, brought forth and nourished Christ. She presented Him to the Father in the temple, and was united with Him by compassion as He died on the Cross. In this singular way she cooperated by her obedience, faith, hope and burning charity in the work of the Savior in giving back supernatural life to souls. Wherefore she is our mother in the order of grace. This maternity of Mary in the order of grace began with the consent which she gave in faith at the Annunciation and which she sustained without wavering beneath the cross, and lasts until the eternal fulfillment of all the elect. Taken up to heaven she did not lay aside this salvific duty, but by her constant intercession continued to bring us the gifts of eternal salvation. By her maternal charity, she cares for the brethren of her Son, who still journey on earth surrounded by dangers and hardships, until they are led into the happiness of their true home. Therefore the Blessed Virgin is invoked by the Church under the titles of Advocate, Auxiliatrix, Adjutrix, and Mediatrix. This, however, is to be so understood that it neither takes away from nor adds anything to the dignity and efficaciousness of Christ the one Mediator. For no creature could ever be counted as equal with the Incarnate Word and Redeemer. Just as the priesthood of Christ is shared in various ways both by the ministers and by the faithful, and as the one goodness of God is really communicated in different ways to His creatures, so also the unique mediation of the Redeemer does not exclude but rather gives rise to a manifold cooperation which is but a sharing in this one source.

~From the dogmatic constitution on the Church of the Second Vatican Council

St. Vincent dePaul Reflection

Jesus sends the apostles out on mission, two by two. His instructions indicate that they are to stay focused on what they are to do. Everything they would do originates in Jesus and the power to stay focused on the mission and be successful comes only from Jesus who sent them. When disciples are sent on mission it is to take up the mission of Jesus, and there is only one mission, to establish God's reign. Like Jesus, disciples will meet resistance, but they will also meet success when they encounter those with faith. It is an awesome thought that Jesus entrusts his mission to us. With our own power and talent, we can do little; with the authority with which Jesus invests his disciples we can do much.
