Stewardship Message— God Answers All Our Needs 2 Kgs 4:42-44/ Eph 4:1-6 / Jn 6:1-15

Today we hear the familiar story of Jesus feeding the 5,000 people on just five loaves and two fish. The reading from 2 Kings also speaks of God's miraculous feeding of a crowd. These passages remind us that nothing is impossible for God, and that He wants to feed His people. Add in Psalm 145, and you see the overall message for today: God will provide EVERYTHING we need — not just food — and He will do so abundantly! Sometimes in our discipleship, it is easy to fall into the lie that we are the ones doing all the work and that it is up to us to solve the world's problems. The truth is, our Heavenly Father already has the solutions, we need only look to Him in faith and hope! And we might want to be prepared for a solution that defies reason, like feeding 5,000 people with a meager sack lunch! Don't make excuses. Don't point out the flaws in God's plan. Simply take action and believe. God will "satisfy the desire of every living thing."

DOCTRINAL SECTION

Mary bore only one Son. In heaven, he is the only-be-gotten of the Father; on earth, likewise, he is the only-begotten of his mother. She is the only virgin mother and glories in having borne the only-begotten of the Father, embracing that same only-begotten of hers in all his members. Therefore, she is not confused when she is called the mother of all in whom she recognizes her Christ brought to full stature, or in whom she knows he is continually growing. The first Eve is not so much a mother as a stepmother, since she handed on to her children an inheritance of certain death rather than the beginning of light. She is indeed called the mother of all the living, but she is more truly the destroyer of the living or the mother of the dead, since the only fruit of her child-bearing was death. And as Eve was incapable of fulfilling the vocation of her title, Mary consummated the mystery. She herself, like the Church of which she is the type, is a mother of all who are reborn to life. She is in fact the mother of the life by which everyone lives, and when she brought it forth from herself she in some way brought to rebirth all those who were to live by that life. Thus the Blessed Mother of Christ, knowing that she is the mother of all Christians by reason of this mystery, shows herself a mother also by her care and loving attention. For her heart is not hardened against these children as if they were not her own; her womb carried a child only once, yet it remains ever fruitful, never ceasing to bring forth the fruits of her motherly compassion. If the servant of Christ by his care and heartfelt tenderness gives birth to his little children again and again until Christ be formed in them, how much more is this true of the very mother of Christ? Paul begot his children by preaching the word of truth through which they were born again; but Mary, in a manner far more holy and godlike, begot them by giving birth to the Word himself. I do indeed praise the ministry of preaching in Paul, but far more do I admire and venerate the mystery of generation in Mary.

~ blessed Guerric of Igny

St. Vincent dePaul Reflection

The multiplication account has more to do with what Jesus was saying about the future than about feeding a hungry crowd. The abundance is a sign of the resurrected life and points to a time of fulfillment when God's plan for redemption is finally realized. The bread grain is specified as barley, the grain used by the poor; in the messianic reign the poor will share in God's abundance. Jesus supersedes both the apostles' and the crowd's expectations: with little he feeds many... Jesus is the sign of God's lavish presence and love. We Christians are to see our lives through the lens of God's extravagant love. Do we?
