23RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

And people brought to him a deaf man who had a speech impediment and begged him to lay his hand on him. He took him off by himself away from the crowd. He put his finger into the man's ears and, spitting, touched his tongue; then he looked up to heaven and groaned, and said to him, "Ephphatha!"—that is, "Be opened!" - Mk 7:32-34

Stewardship Message—

The Deaf Will Hear

Is 35:4-7a / Jas 2:1-5 / Mk 7:31-37

Today we hear of Jesus healing a man who is deaf and “tongue-tied.” It wasn’t unusual for Jesus to heal the deaf and the mute, but this time was a bit different. It was private and intimate. Jesus “took him off by himself away from the crowd.” He knew the man’s wounds and He met his specific needs. Jesus wasn’t in the business of performing miracles, He was in the business of healing people. He still is. He wants to heal our wounds, too, but He won’t force that upon us. He patiently waits for our surrender of our will. He awaits our FIAT. It is easy to agree to God’s will when all is well; it is more difficult — and all the more necessary — to say “Let it be done” when we are suffering and lost. The physical healing that Jesus provides has spiritual significance — He doesn’t just want to “fix” us, He wants to recreate us. Our discipleship demands that we recognize our need for healing, and beg Him to make us fully alive again!

We will continue to have Mass in the church for the duration of the steps replacement. The railing will be installed last, so please use the handicap ramp if you need a railing. We are sorry for this inconvenience!!

DOCTRINAL SECTION

Sacred scripture is of the greatest importance in the celebration of the liturgy. For it is from scripture that lessons are read and explained in the homily, and psalms are sung; the prayers, collects, and liturgical songs are scriptural in their inspiration and their force, and it is from the scriptures that actions and signs derive their meaning.

Thus to achieve the restoration, progress, and adaptation of the sacred liturgy, it is essential to promote that warm and living love for scripture to which the venerable tradition of both eastern and western rites gives testimony. Liturgical services are not private functions, but are celebrations of the Church, which is the "sacrament of unity," namely, the holy people united and ordered under their bishops.

Therefore liturgical services pertain to the whole body of the Church; they manifest it and have effects upon it; but they concern the individual members of the Church in different ways, according to their differing rank, office, and actual participation.

It is to be stressed that whenever rites, according to their specific nature, make provision for communal celebration involving the presence and active participation of the faithful, this way of celebrating them is to be preferred, so far as possible, to a celebration that is individual and quasi-private.

This applies with special force to the celebration of Mass and the administration of the sacraments, even though every Mass has of itself a public and social nature.

In liturgical celebrations each person, minister or layman, who has an office to perform, should do all of, but only, those parts which pertain to his office by the nature of the rite and the principles of liturgy.

~On the Sacred Liturgy, Vactican II

The Parish Leadership Team

The Movement called "Amazing Parish" has been adapted by many parishes in the Catholic Diocese of Wichita. Its founder is Pat Lencioni, a New York Times best-selling author and who has worked with hundreds of corporations to help them achieve success through organizational health and leadership. This Leadership team meets regularly with the Pastors to assist with the needs of the Parish of St. Mary. Our leadership team members are:

Matt Anderson, Joshua Bargdill, Mary Ann Bruggeman, Amber Holguin, Mike Weber, Fr. Voelker and Fr. Max Biltz.

SEASONS OF HOPE

"Seasons of Hope" has been cancelled. Hopefully, the class can resume around the holiday season.

St. Vincent dePaul Reflection

St. Vincent tells us that humility is a grace of our Lord Jesus. Humility only comes when the light of Jesus penetrates deeply into our being and into all our thinking and reflection. When that light does penetrate into us, it transfigures everything, not only our opinion about ourselves but our attitude towards others. With humility God will be glorified, the poor will be served and made happy, and we ourselves will enjoy the grace and peace of Jesus Christ, who is gentle and humble of heart.
