Stewardship Message— Do Whatever We Ask Of You

Is 53:10-11 / Heb 4:14-16 / Mk 10:35-45

In today's Gospel, we see James and John, the sons of Zebedee, make a couple of bold moves. First, they say to Jesus, "we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you." Seems a bit forward. And then there is the actual request: "Grant that in your glory we may sit one at your right and the other at your left." As appalling and as arrogant as these statements may seem, they reveal two beautiful things about these disciples. First, their behavior reminds us that the disciples are not saints — they are ordinary men with ordinary desires. Second, they have maintained a steadfast faith in Jesus. Even when others have abandoned Him, these brothers insist on seats of honor with Jesus. Like James and John, we may occasionally make high demands of our Lord. We may forget to be humble. But if our requests come from a place of love and faith, then perhaps our hearts are in the right place.

DOCTRINAL SECTION

Christ's redemptive work, while essentially concerned with the salvation of men, includes also the renewal of the whole temporal order. Hence the mission of the Church is not only to bring the message and grace of Christ to men but also to penetrate and perfect the temporal order with the spirit of the Gospel. In fulfilling this mission of the Church, the Christian laity exercise their apostolate both in the Church and in the world, in both the spiritual and the temporal orders. These orders, although distinct, are so connected in the singular plan of God that He Himself intends to raise up the whole world again in Christ and to make it a new creation, initially on earth and completely on the last day. In both orders the layman, being simultaneously a believer and a citizen, should be continuously led by the same Christian conscience. The mission of the Church pertains to the salvation of men, which is to be achieved by belief in Christ and by His grace. The apostolate of the Church and of all its members is primarily designed to manifest Christ's message by words and deeds and to communicate His grace to the world. This is done mainly through the ministry of the Word and the sacraments, entrusted in a special way to the clergy, wherein the laity also have their very important roles to fulfill if they are to be "fellow workers for the truth" (3 John 8). It is especially on this level that the apostolate of the laity and the pastoral ministry are mutually complementary. There are innumerable opportunities open to the laity for the exercise of their apostolate of evangelization and sanctification. The very testimony of their Christian life and good works done in a supernatural spirit have the power to draw men to belief and to God; for the Lord says, "Even so let your light shine before men in order that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven" (Matt. 5:16).

~St. Pope Paul VI

St. Vincent dePaul Reflection

People are not looking for leaders who can solve all their problems or answer all their questions. Often they know the answers already or they know their problem has no immediate solution. More than anything else people look to us who minister to them for our presence of loving, caring and forgiving others. They want our help in their efforts to handle pain and frustration. They look to us for understanding; they seek a sensitive and consoling response to their hurt feelings; they need the spiritual comfort we can bring through our ministry. They want someone who will pray with them, whose presence will remind them that no matter what their difficulties might be, God really loves and cares for them. They want assurance that God will never abandon them. This is the leadership that we are called to

BACKPACKS FOR KIDS NEEDS YOUR HELP!!

Backpacks for Kids is asking for your help to feed hungry children in the Catholic schools for the 2021-2022 school year. It is estimated that the number of children who are facing food insecurity has gone up by approximately 83% in our country due to Covid. We are seeing this in our Catholic Schools as well. Any donations would be appreciated as we only have enough money to purchase food for October. You may send your donation to: Backpacks 4 kids, P.O. Box 780926 Wichita, KS 67207. You may also donate online at: <http://svdpwchita.weebly.com/child-hunger.html>

VALUE THEM BOTH

"A truly welcoming society must be a culture of Life... We must appreciate the dignity of Life in all its seasons... and look toward the day when every child, born and unborn, is welcome in Life and protected by law."

~ George W. Bush
