Stewardship Message - May 4, 2014

"What Gifts Do I Share?"

Third Sunday of Easter

As one of the Apostles, Peter enjoyed a relationship with Jesus that very few men can claim. Yet his understanding of who Jesus is and why he came to earth was not complete until after Jesus' resurrection. When Peter finally understood the mission of Christ, he had the courage to tell everyone he encountered and he shared the gift of his relationship with Jesus and his understanding of the Kingdom of God. As we listen to the familiar stories of the resurrection and the awakening of the Apostles' understanding, we can also be open to the Holy Spirit as our own knowledge deepens. May the Spirit bring light to our darkness.

Fr. Kapaun Parish Library Update

The Fr. Kapaun Parish Library, located in the Parish Center, has made a lot of improvements over the past several months. The renovations to this room with additional bookshelves, countertop, new TV, furniture and decorations are ALL thanks to extraordinary gifts of parishioners time, treasure and talent. The work being done is not being supplemented from the parishes budget, it has only been made possible by several dedicated parishioners vision of what this room could become. While not completely finished, the room will be open this weekend during fellowship Sunday after the 8:30 & 10:30 Mass. The Library committee hopes you enjoy this space and will be making plans in the future to have regular open hours for all to use. If interested in helping with the library in any way please contact the church office at 282-0459.
