Stewardship Message - June 1, 2014

"What Gifts Do I Share?"

Ascension of the Lord

The Stewardship way of life is based on the recognition of God's mercy and goodness in giving us everything that we have. After Jesus returned to the Father, the Holy Spirit came to abide with the Apostles. This gift brought wisdom, understanding and courage to men who were full of fear and doubt. The Apostles shared these gifts freely in bringing the good news of the Kingdom of God to the peoples of their time. Our faith today is the fruit of the work of the Apostles and impels a response to the gifts we've received. May our lives be filled by a desire to bring the Gospel to everyone we meet.

Be thinking about "What words or phrases best describe this parish." Also, we are looking for age group representatives for the pastoral council next year. On this survey, please recommend 1 person for each age group category (18 - 30, 31 - 55, 56 - up) who you feel would be a good addition to the pastoral council for next year.

~Legion of Mary~

Is the Blessed Mother calling upon you to do something special? Have you been wanting to deepen your faith? Have you lined your shelves with religious books and pamphlets you have not read yet? Is there a longing inside your heart that when you sit down and talk with Our Lady, you feel better about life in general? If you answered "yes" to any or all of these questions, then, maybe the Legion is for you. We invite you to join us on Thursday evenings after the 5:30 pm Mass. Our ministry is very active, and would like you to come pray the rosary, and then join us for our prayerful meeting. Our Lady transforms our hearts and souls, to a Marian way of life. We pray the Holy Rosary and the Tesserà daily. The Legion of Mary has a website that you can pray the prayers with your daily rosary.

For more information, please contact, Linda Bennett, 316-587-5337. If you haven't been placed on the schedule for your Home Enthronement, you can do that too, when you call for more information on how you can become a member.
