Stewardship Message - Nov. 16, 2014

"The Joy of the Gospel: Faith Working Through Love"
 Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Faith working through Love! We live in a paradox. With heaven as the ultimate goal, life in this world can seem like a waiting game. Today's readings remind us that the time our Father gives us on earth should be used to spread the Kingdom of God through diligent efforts. Jesus teaches us in the Gospel to use the gifts from our Heavenly Master to produce an increase for his Kingdom. When we fail to make good use of our talents, they will be taken from us. St. Paul emphasizes our need to be alert and prepared for the day of the Lord's coming. Each of us can live with our focus on heaven to keep from becoming satisfied with the riches of the world. May we long to join our Father in heaven and use our time on earth to spread the joy of His Love.

Our Deepest Sympathy...

November: Month of All Souls

The Liturgical Month of November is the month of All Souls. We pray for the faithfully departed. The souls of the departed need our prayers. It is believed that as we pray for them, those souls will intercede for us.

Early deadline on the next two bulletins due to Thanksgiving. Have items in to the office by noon on Monday each week. thanks

New Lighthouse CD— Week 8
Getting Others to Heaven

Believe it or not, we are all called to be leaders. In her typical vibrant and energetic style, Noelle Garcia here shows us how leadership is an important component for propagating the New Evangelization. Noelle shares her early experiences of dealing with insecurity, and how she came to better understand what it means to be a Christian leader. She shows that although we are all sinners, God has given us all unique gifts.

Parishioner Comments

- This talk was not only inspiring but also one that I will have to buy extra copies for believers and non believers. I think that this hits on many points that are prevalent in today's society.
